The infographic features a central light blue circle with the text "Student Success" and "Optimize Degree Velocity™". Surrounding this central circle are six smaller colored circles, each containing an icon and a label: "Financial Health" (green, stethoscope and dollar sign), "Instructional Capacity" (red, books), "Infrastructure" (orange, building and network), "Enrollment Health" (teal, bar chart and plus sign), "Schedule Refinement" (yellow, calendar and arrows), and "Pathway Health" (blue, graduation cap and arrows). A dotted line connects the outer circles in a circular path.

SAUL EWING
ARNSTEIN
& LEHR^{LLP}

Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr LLP has been serving institutions of higher education, including large public and private universities, small independent colleges and universities, community colleges, and a myriad of education-affiliated entities, for decades.

The firm was among the first to establish a Higher Education Practice dedicated to serving postsecondary clients on a national basis. The team includes attorneys who have worked closely with higher education general counsels as well those who understand the needs of higher education institutions across many practice areas: tax, labor and employment, real estate, intellectual property, litigation, energy, environmental, regulatory compliance, commercial transactions, information technology, trusts and estates. Simply stated, Saul Ewing understands how legal issues intersect with life on campus.

CCIC invites you to connect with Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr at www.saul.com

The College Board is a mission-driven not-for-profit organization that connects students to college success and opportunity.

Each year, the College Board helps more than seven million students prepare for a successful transition to college through programs and services in college readiness and college success — including the SAT and the Advanced Placement Program. The organization also serves the education community through research and advocacy on behalf of students, educators and schools.

CCIC invites you to connect with The College Board at www.collegeboard.org.

The costs to manage colleges and universities are increasing. What are you doing to reduce those expenses?

Expense Reduction Analysts can help.

Our specialists leverage their in-depth industry knowledge and benchmarking data to ensure your institution gets the best pricing and services from its suppliers. The result? We reduce costs and unlock cash flow that's often overlooked, helping you improve your bottom line. Cost reduction is our singular focus. We have helped numerous other colleges and universities reduce the costs associated with everything from office supplies to waste disposal to food services and more.

SMART LEGAL COUNSEL FOR EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Educational institutions operate in a unique organizational and cultural environment. Carmody helps schools, colleges, universities and other academic institutions to be successful in this highly regulated and competitive setting.

We work with you to identify potential problems and proactively address them before they become significant legal issues. By taking this approach, schools and other educational institutions can avoid the disruption and expense of a lawsuit. However, when litigation is unavoidable, we bring to bear the full power of our trial department to represent you in hearings, arbitrations, bench trials, jury trials, and state and federal administrative agencies and courts.
