GENUINE PARTNERSHIPS

Building reciprocal relationships with a variety of Hartford-based community partners.

ACTION-ORIENTED

Making sure that our research results are accessible and actionable.

PLACE-BASED, ACTIVE LEARNING

Using the tenets of a liberal arts education to solve real-world, practical problems in our city.

GENUINE PARTNERSHIPS

- How do we choose which projects to work on?
- How do we maintain accountability to the Hartford community?
- How do we ensure our relationships are reciprocal, and not transactional?

ACTION- ORIENTED

- How do we make sure our research findings are accessible, actionable, and appropriate for a wide variety of audiences?

PLACE-BASED, ACTIVE- LEARNING

- How do we make sure we connect Trinity and Capital students to the real world beyond the campus borders?
- How do we prove the value of a liberal arts education in providing practical training for our students?
