

Bachelor's Degrees Awarded by CCIC Member Institutions, 2010-2018

Source: National Center for Education Statistics, IPEDS

From 2010-2018, CCIC member institutions awarded 95,965 bachelor's degrees or 48 percent of the total bachelor's degrees awarded in Connecticut.

With a 15 percent growth in the number of degrees awarded since 2010 and a continuing strong number of awards conferred each year, Connecticut's independent colleges and universities are a significant contributor to Connecticut's talent needs.
