

Trinity College

HARTFORD CONNECTICUT

Economic Impact $941,294,933

The total economic impact of a university can be measured in terms of the direct and induced economic impact of a university's activity on the local economy.

TOTAL DIRECT SPENDING
$ 567,113,467

Direct spending is defined as the amount of money spent directly by the university, university employees, students, and visitors.

INDUCED SPENDING
$ 374,181,466

The induced economic impact is the additional employment and expenditures of local industries that result because of direct spending.

Direct Spending
by Employees
$39,863,848

Direct Spending
by Students
$13,186,450

Direct Spending
by Visitors
$2,834,240

College
Purchases
$66,254,429

Capital Spending
(5 year average)
$444,974,500

Trinity College
brings opportunity to the region
6,907
JOBS CREATED

Connecticut is home to 5,871 ALUMNI